

Kongres Container

Energy storage power station project launched

Overview

PGE has launched the construction of a battery-based energy storage facility with the installed capacity of 263 MW and the storage potential of 900 MWh. The project is located in Żarnowiec, Pomorskie voivodeship, close to offshore wind farms and a pumped storage power station.

Energy storage power station project launched

Contact Us

For catalog requests, pricing, or partnerships, please visit:
<https://drugiswiatowykongrespolakow.pl>