The electricity market in Estonia has been fully open to all market participants since the beginning of 2013, and consumers can choose a suitable seller and price package for themselves. The electricity market is traded in the Estonian region either through the Nord Pool Spot electricity exchange.

End-customer electricity bills in Estonia have three main components: (a) the energy price (what the customer pays per kWh of electricity); (b) the network (grid) fee; and (c) state-imposed taxes/charges (including the renewable support fee and electricity excise). Energy price: Customers can.

Estonia is part of Nord Pool's open electricity market together with Norway, Sweden, Finland, Denmark, Latvia and Lithuania (see map). In the open electricity market (power exchange), the price of electricity is formed as a result of supply and demand. There is at least one price area in each.

Tariffs plus value-added tax equals import tax. To give a simple example: when the declared value of an item is $200, with a tariff rate of 7% and a value-added tax rate of 10%, the calculation method is as follows: The shipping items in the order will be subject to relevant tariff at this rate.
