Thailand rooftop solar energy storage companies

Overview

Why is Thailand removing the requirement for rooftop solar?

By removing this requirement, the Ministry of Industry has effectively lowered the barriers for businesses to adopt large-scale rooftop solar systems. This move aligns with Thailand's renewable energy ambitions, including the goal of achieving 30% renewable energy in the national energy mix by 2037 and carbon neutrality by 2050.

Who is Bangkok solar power?

1. Bangkok Solar Power Co.Ltd Founded in 2007 as a subsidiary of Bangkok Cable Group, BSP has been developing its activities for providing the Engineering, Procurement, and Construction (EPC) solutions in relation to Photovoltaic (PV) Power Systems for domestic and international markets.

How to choose a solar energy company in Thailand?

As solar is becoming cheaper and more popular, choosing among the many solar energy companies in Thailand is getting harder, especially so as each installer may offer you different packages, services and energy solutions. Finding the right solar installer for your roof is important in ensuring a hassle-free installation that you are satisfied with.

Why is Thailand exempting rooftop solar installations from factory licence requirements?

Thailand's decision to exempt rooftop solar installations exceeding 1 MW from factory licence requirements removes significant barriers to solar adoption, enabling businesses to save costs, achieve energy independence and contribute to environmental goals.

How will regulatory changes affect Thailand's solar industry?

Companies that integrate renewable energy into their operations will find themselves better positioned to compete in global markets. The regulatory change is a clear boon for Thailand's solar sector, paving the way for accelerated growth in rooftop solar installations.

What is Thailand's new solar policy?

As industry, developers and policymakers collaborate to implement this policy effectively, the future of solar energy in Thailand looks brighter than ever. Thailand's new policy unlocks rooftop solar for businesses – cutting costs, boosting energy independence and driving sustainability.
