The cost of kilowatt solar energy

Overview

How much does solar energy cost per kWh?

Cost per kWh shows the lifetime cost of solar electricity by dividing your net system cost by total expected energy production over 25 years. This typically ranges from 6-8 cents per kWh, compared to current grid electricity averaging 16.44 cents per kWh nationally.

What is the relative cost of solar energy?

Another measure of the relative cost of solar energy is its price per kilowatt-hour (kWh). Whereas the price per watt considers the solar system's size, the price per kWh shows the price of the solar system per unit of energy it produces over a given period of time. $\text{Net cost of the system} / \text{lifetime output} = \text{cost per kilowatt hour}$.

How many kilowatts does a solar system use?

Solar systems are sized in kilowatts (kW) and are typically designed to offset 100% of your average annual electricity usage. For reference, the average U.S. household consumes 10,000 kWh of electricity per year and, with average sunshine, would need a 7.5 kW solar system to offset their electricity charges.
