

Kongres Container

Uganda Customs with outdoor power supply

Overview

What are customs duties in Uganda?

Customs duties are essential revenues for the Ugandan government and play a significant role in regulating trade while ensuring compliance in the import and export of goods. In Uganda, the primary types of customs duties include import duties, export duties, and specific tariffs. Import duties are levied on goods brought into the country.

What are the import & export restrictions in Uganda?

Get import & export customs regulations, restricted items and food restrictions before travelling to Uganda. Items allowed to import is Perfume and eau de toilette up to 500mL, of which 125mL may be perfume. Prohibited items is Counterfeit currency and goods.

How much is import duty in Uganda?

Generally, these rates vary, with most products attracting an import duty that ranges from 0% to 25%. However, certain categories may incur higher rates depending on the specific product classification and the applicable laws governing trade and customs in Uganda.

Are You complying with Uganda Customs regulations?

As you know, customs regulations widely depend on the country. Before traveling to (or from) Uganda make sure to check the allowance and limits for the next things: Check the information below to be sure that you are complying with Uganda customs regulations. 250 grams total of any tobacco products. Restricted to travellers 18 years and over.

What is the difference between export and import duties in Uganda?

The Ugandan Revenue Authority (URA) has established specific duty rates depending on the classification of the goods, which can range from zero percent for essential items to varied rates for luxury goods. Export duties, on the other hand, are charges imposed on goods leaving Uganda.

What products does Uganda import from the United States?

The EAC agreement increased import duties on some products (e.g., chocolate, tomato sauce, mineral water, and processed meat, among others) that Uganda currently imports from the United States.

Uganda Customs with outdoor power supply

Contact Us

For catalog requests, pricing, or partnerships, please visit:
<https://drugiswiatowykongrespolakow.pl>