Ukrainian distributed energy storage manufacturer

Overview

DTEK, Ukraine's largest private energy company, has selected Fluence Energy B.V., a subsidiary of Fluence Energy, Inc. (NASDAQ: FLNC) ("Fluence"), a global market leader delivering intelligent energy storage, operational services, and asset optimization software, to supply Ukraine's first large-scale battery-based energy storage portfolio. What does DTEK's new energy storage system mean for Ukraine?

The new project aims to strengthen Ukraine's energy security and support the transition to a greener energy system. DTEK Group aims to commission the new storage systems by September 2025.

Will DTEK build a 200MW battery energy storage system in Ukraine?

DTEK unveils €140m plan for 200MW battery energy storage systems in Ukraine. (Credit: DTEK) DTEK Group, a private investor in Ukraine's energy sector, has announced a €140m investment plan to construct a series of battery energy storage systems (BESS) in the country with a combined capacity of 200MW.

Why is Ukraine investing €140 million in energy storage?

The €140 million total investment aims to enhance power grid stability, bolstering Ukraine's energy security and independence. The project will be the biggest operational energy storage portfolio in Eastern Europe at the time of commissioning.

Will a new battery storage facility strengthen Ukraine's grid?

Sept. 10, 2025. (Bohdan Nazarenko/DTEK) Ukraine's biggest private energy firm, DTEK, has launched a major battery storage facility that will bring power to hundreds of thousands of homes and strengthen the grid ahead of expected Russian attacks this winter, the company said.

Can battery technology decentralise Ukraine's energy system?

Battery technology plays a crucial role in decentralising Ukraine's energy system to mitigate the impact of energy supply disruptions caused by Russia, said the energy investment company.

Why is DTEK investing in Ukraine?

"Despite the war, we invest in Ukraine's recovery and growth. Our energy sector, having withstood countless Russian attacks, now gains new momentum," owner of DTEK and Ukraine's richest man, Rinat Akhmetov, said in a press release.
