It only takes one dead phone battery to make you realize the importance of a power bank for camping. Whether it's snapping a picture of the local flora and fauna, setting an alarm for your sunrise hike, or pulling up directions for the drive home, it's essential that you have enough juice to last.

If you're heading off on an outdoor adventure — be it wild camping, a multi-day hike, or just spending more time away from plug sockets — having a one of the best portable power banks is a bit of a must. Smartphones, sports watches, bike lights, and even headlamps often rely on a quick juice.

Selecting the best power bank for you can not only minimise technological faff on the hills, but can also be the difference between safety and an escalating emergency situation. Steph Wetherell tests the best with additional testing from Peter Macfarlane. Have you ever unexpectedly run low on phone.

I've tested multiple portable power banks in remote locations, and the top performers include the Jackery Explorer 1000 v2 with 1070Wh capacity for high-demand devices, the GRECELL 300W station offering 230.88Wh with efficient MPPT solar charging, and the compact P201 providing 148Wh with multiple.

Whether you're looking for a lightweight power bank to keep your smartphone charged in the field, or a device big enough to keep a fridge running at home during the next power outage, look no further. With the help of a crew, I tested a range of power banks, higher-capacity portable power stations.

We've researched more than 40 power banks over the last four years, and tested 25 of the most promising battery packs on trail to bring you this guide. Whether your charging needs are extensive or you just need a simple battery to top up your phone every once in a while, our expertise will help you.
